

ON THE BALL

Dyke in Brentford move

FORMER director general of the BBC Greg Dyke is set to be appointed chairman of Brentford after supporters' group Bees United raised the necessary funds to buy out Ron Noades's 60 per cent stake in the club.

Cole's fitness race

ASHLEY COLE is set to miss Arsenal's match at Everton on Saturday after picking up a thigh injury against Middlesbrough last weekend.

Coventry's Wise choice

DENNIS WISE is set to join Coventry. The 39-year-old left Southampton after being overlooked for the manager's job. Former Gillingham player-manager Andy Hessenthaler, 40, has signed for Barnet.

Hendon survival bid

FANS have set up a fighting fund to save non-League Hendon. The ground is being sold and chief backer, the Arbiter Group, is pulling out.